REPORTED HORRIBLE MURDER OF AN INFANT BY A [illegible]

[From the Rochester Union and Advertiser Nov 28]

We have received the particulars of a horrible affair which [illegible] a few miles from Corning [illegible] Thursday last. At the [illegible] Mr and Mrs Cull[illegible] and their three children [illegible] years [illegible] has been [illegible] family [illegible] Wednesday [illegible] country for that purpose leaving her [illegible] in charge of a girl named Barber aged 15 [illegible] the younger children and was fretful [illegible] Barber [illegible] taking the [illegible] until they were terribly burned. The child was too far gone to utter more than a faint scream while it was being roasted. Barber then threatened to throw it into a well when the other children, who had witnessed the whole thing, told her that if she did they would tell their mother. The girl then wrapped the child in a blanket or bed quilt and placed it in a bed, where it was found by the mother, who returned home Wednesday night dead. The marks of brutality were plainly visible on its body and after questioning the children, information was given the coroner. After the investigation he ordered the arrest of Barber called a jury and an inquest was in session yesterday. The inquest will be concluded to-day and it is said there can be no doubt as to the finding of the jury.

The case excites considerable anxiety in the vicinity where the horrible affair occurred as well it may. We were unable to learn anything of the antecedents of the girl Barber.

GEN GRANT'S REPORT

[From the N Y Times Nov 30]

The following is the official report of the General of the armies. It will be seen that it is exceedingly brief, although its suggestions are pointed. The public may possibly infer in view of the brevity of the report that a full report would have involved a discussion at this time of reconstruction measures and a possible explanation of the reasons which governed certain action. The public may also infer, in view of the near approach of the time when Gen Grant is to speak on these subjects from the highest official position in the Government sufficient reasons for not doing so now.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE U S
Washington D C Nov 21 1868

Gen J M Schofield Secretary of War

SIR: I have the honor to submit the reports of Division District and Department Commanders for the past year. The reports give a full account of the operations and services of the army for the year and I refer to them for details. I would earnestly renew my recommendation of last year, that the control of the Indians be transferred to the War Department. I call special attention to the recommendation of Gen Sherman on this subject. It has my entire approval. It is unnecessary that the arguments in favor of the transfer should be stated. The necessity for it becomes stronger and more evident every day. While the Indian war continues I do not deem any legislation for the reduction of the army advisable. The troops on the Plains are all needed. Troops are still needed in the Southern States and further reduction can be made in the way already used and now in operation where it is safe namely, by allowing companies to diminish by discharges without being strengthened by recruits and by stopping appointment of second lieutenants. If it should be deemed advisable the Veteran Reserve regiments might be discontinued by absorption and retirement of officers and discharge of men without detriment to the service.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
U S GRANT General

THE ASSASSINATION OF POLLARD—CARD FROM HIS BROTHER

RICHMOND, Va, Thursday, Nov 26.—E. A Pollard has arrived here, and publishes a card which appeared after dark in an extra of the State Journal. He says he comes for justice and not for vengeance that he will devote himself entirely to the matter, and if the civil authorities do not bring the assassin to trial he will invoke the power of the military under the reconstruction acts, and that he will not allow another number of the Opinion to be published. The following is the card:

RICHMOND Thursday Nov 26

Before I left New York yesterday I had read the dispatches sent from Richmond relating to my brother's death. As to the brutality ever such an event as to the crowd probably the base cowards who had watched in the street for the consummation of the deed of blood cheering an assassin who had shot his victim from a three-story window, secreted and locked in a room as to this [illegible] salutation of death as to this man reeking with murder, receiving the congratulations of his friends allowed the freedom of the office of the Police Chief as to his being unconfined unconcerned, as to efforts to put justice at defiance as to a coroner's jury [illegible] that death was caused by an unknown person —let these things stand to the shame of their perpetrators, and write their own commentary on the chivalry of Richmond. They shame not me, they shame not the dead. My heart is sufficient to hold him. No man can insult my tears. I come to claim but one thing. Justice. Whatever were the offences of my poor brother, every man deserves justice. What is that it is equal and exact to all. Is assassination not murder? Is it ever justifiable! Is the element of assassination ever to be allowed in any mode of taking redress? And where in all the black and [illegible] paths of crime has there been the equal of this deed [illegible] all the [illegible] where has the [illegible] the assassin [illegible] Where [illegible] barricaded itself with such dastardly pains? Let just [illegible] Let all true people [illegible] I am far from defending the article to which has been referred to in my brother's paper. I deeply regret it, but my brother did not write it. The murderer never enquired for the real author. He never asked any word of explanation. He never applied to have the article corrected. He took not one single measure which the brave man, no matter how wronged always takes before coming to the last resource. [illegible] He went with but one alternative to that resource and he went where none but the coward treads— in the path of the assassin.

EDWARD A POLLARD

GEN GRANT'S JEW ORDER—WHY IT WAS ISSUED

[From the Israelite]

We cheerfully give place to the following distinguished correspondence which will be read with pleasure by all of our readers who like ourselves desire to see justice done to Gen. Grant now the incoming executive head of the Government.

LETTER FROM HON I N MORRIS OF ILLINOIS

QUINCY Ill Nov 1 1868

Dr Isaac M Wise Editor of the Israelite

I send you the inclosed a copy of a letter in my possession from Gen Grant together with one from Mr Moses written to Gen Grant and to which this is a reply. Few men have the moral gratitude of character to write such a letter. Its publication during the pendency of the election would have [illegible] the motive which prompted it. No such suspicion can arise now.

I am aware that you and many of your have conceived that Gen Grant did a great injustice in promulgating Order No 11. His frank denial of any such intention proves not only the magnanimity of his character but that he is incapable of entertaining against the Jews or any other people as a class or race an unkind feeling. He is too great and good for that. Will you therefore do the general the justice to publish his letter in your widely circulated paper? I take the liberty of sending it to you for that purpose. I remain Sir yours respectfully

I N MORRIS

ADOLPH MOSES TO GEN GRANT

QUINCY Ill Sept 2 1868

Gen U S Grant Washington D C

SIR: I address you at the earnest solicitation of your friend Hon I N Morris in relation to the matter now generally known as Order No 11. It will hardly surprise you that we, as a people, a great [illegible] of our former [illegible] and [illegible] still lament the issuance of that order whatever the immediate causes might have been. [illegible] the Jews [illegible] you [illegible] that you regret the sweeping effect of the order.

If we urge [illegible] may be only partisan [illegible] the [illegible] regret [illegible] task [illegible]

Whatever the [illegible] may be Mr [illegible] the Jewish people and if they feel the severe compulsion to cast their suffrage against you in this campaign they do so in many instances under protest for with them their long assailed reputation demands the greatest sacrifices, even at the risk of being misunderstood by the judgment of the hour. Excuse the liberty of addressing you. I have the encouragement of one of your friends.

Very respectfully
ADOLPH MOSES

GEN GRANT TO HON I N MORRIS

GALENA Ill Sept 14, 1868

Hon I N Morris

DEAR SIR: I am in receipt of a letter of Mr A Moses, of the 2d inst, his being one from you bearing same date. My first inclination was to answer Mr Moses, he also you desired it, then I thought it would be better to adhere to the rule of silence as to all letters. Were I once to commence answering all political questions asked of me there would not be time between now and the 3d of November to get through. Mr Moses I think will readily understand this. In regard to Order No 11 hundreds of letters have been written to me about it by persons of the faith affected by it. I do or did not answer any of the writers but permitted a statement of the facts concerning the origin of the order to be made out and given to some one of them for publication. I do not pretend to sustain the order.

At the time of its publication I was incensed by a reprimand received from Washington for permitting acts which Jews within my lines were engaged in. There were many other persons within my lines equally bad with the worst of them, but the difference was that the Jews could pass with impunity from one army to the other and gold, in violation of orders, was being smuggled through the lines, at least so it was reported. The order was issued and sent without any reflection and without thinking of the Jews as a sect or race to themselves, but simply as persons who had successfully (I say successfully, instead of persistently, because there were plenty of others within my lines who envied their success) violated an order, which greatly inured to the help of the rebels.

Give Mr Moses assurance that I have no prejudice against sect or race but want each individual to be judged by his own merit. Order No 11 does not sustain this statement I admit but then I do not sustain that order. It never would have been issued if it had not been telegraphed the moment it was penned, and without reflection.

Yours truly, U S GRANT

THURLOW WEED

[New York Letter]

Since his return home Thurlow Weed has been quite indisposed and obliged to remain at his residence on Twelfth street, most of the time. Troops of friends flock to see him and express their satisfaction at his return. There is probably no living man who has so many devoted personal friends as Mr Weed. The faculty of making and retaining friends has been the secret of his great political influence and power. I venture to say that he was never in a position, for any length of time, that all, down to the most subordinate clerk or office boy did not become attached to him. He shows an interest in all with whom he is surrounded, and endeavors to help them forward in the world, and this not from any motive but because it is his nature to do so. Another trait of his character has been to always recognize those he meets, even to the printer's devil and what is more satisfactory to a subordinate than to receive such recognition from a superior. Mr Weed has always had a kind and encouraging word for every one. His nature has been full of sunshine and kindness, and he has devoted many years of his life to performing acts of kindness. Since coming to New York for example his private rooms at the newspaper office or at the Astor House have been constantly visited by needy applicants for help and assistance. Before his departure for Europe he used to devote several hours every day listening to the tales of misfortune related by applicants with letters to him and attempting to find employment for them. "Go and see Mr Weed" was the response which the poor and needy very often received on applying to others for help. Mr Weed is constantly giving to charitable and other purposes in a quiet manner. For example he made a donation of $5000 last year, which was unknown to the public. Mr Sheldon the publisher who was acquainted with him in Albany informs me that he never refused a beggar's appeal and very many times gave the last cent in his pocket to the hand extending for assistance. On one occasion in early life when he himself was in poor circumstances he started down town with five dollars to purchase some groceries and meat. On his way however he encountered an acquaintance in misfortune and immediately drew out his five dollars and handed it to him. The family had to do without their supplies for that day. This incident truly illustrates his character.

THE MINNESOTA SENATORSHIP

ST PAUL Minn Nov [illegible] After a general [illegible] of the members of the Legislature elect it has been ascertained that considerably more than three fourths of the [illegible] favor the re-election of Senator Ramsey. [illegible] eight votes exhaust his whole strength. Attempts were made to form combinations to defeat Ramsey but they have been abandoned. Wilkinson is not a candidate.

DELMAR'S FALSE STATEMENTS

[From the New York Times Nov 29]

The absurd statement of the national debt and credit which Mr Delmar, of the Bureau of Statistics made out some time ago to help the Democratic party has been used in Europe as a means of damaging American credit and interests. Our Florence correspondent says that the exhibit has been widely published in Italy and accepted by the ignorant as a correct representation. He adds that though such fellows as Delmar hardly have the power of injuring the country their efforts may be the cause of national reproach. In view of these labors of Mr Delmar he ought to have his salary raised but it happens that Congress has provided for the abolition of him and his Bureau at the close of the year.

GRAPE SHOT

[From the Pall Mall Gazette]

We have to record the demise of a distinguished and well tried servant of the public one of the very oldest members of the artillery service. Cropping [illegible] We shall say when the career of the ancient projectile commenced. It was probably contemporary or nearly so with the introduction of artillery for without too nicely specifying particular patterns it may be said to have had its origin in the charges of divers coarse gravel bits of iron bolts and the like which under the comprehensive term of cartridge were used by artillerists as early as the fourteenth century. The little bags filled with stones of the epoch and the canvas cartridges containing small iron balls of a later time furnish more exact prototypes of the modern form of grape which consisted of an iron plate piled [illegible] with iron [illegible] inclosed in a canvas bag the whole being [illegible] with a string line and painted. The name grape was derived from the similitude or resemblance which this projectile bore to a bunch of grapes. Outside the service this is the form of grape best known but strictly speaking it was superseded forty six years ago by a less regular [illegible] pattern [illegible] The [illegible] grape although approved in 18[illegible] was not generally made until 1858 and it never quite shouldered the old fashioned sort out of the service for to this day there exist at most of the stations stores of the latter, the greater part of these stores no [illegible] in an unserviceable condition. The Caffin grape consisted of four tiers of circular iron plates inclosing between them iron balls and connected by an iron spindle which passed through the centers of the plates. The old fashioned grape never got over the shock inflicted by the introduction of this new pattern and of late years it [illegible] has become merged in a great measure [illegible] case or canister shot cylinders of tin [illegible] filled with balls. By increasing the size of these balls and by improving the construction of the cylinders themselves a projectile which was first known as case grape was made to do duty at once for case and grape and a recent order has removed the [illegible] grape shot from the list of British service stores. No distinguished a servant cannot however be allowed to take its departure [illegible] to mingle its ashes with those of the chain and [illegible] shot of earlier ages without a word of [illegible] of regret.

[illegible] AND LADY BULWER

[From a Correspondent Chicago Tribune]

Lady Bulwer who was once the torment of her husband [illegible] published [illegible] novels every year or two in which he was the villain, and his death [illegible] as the most desirable of events—is now, I believe, out of "harm's way." She is understood to be in a lunatic asylum. A Peeress by right she has never enjoyed the honors of the station. Lady Bulwer was always a passionate woman, she was a hot-headed Irish girl of the middle classes who could not brook the least contradiction or apparent neglect. Bulwer was fond of her and dedicated one of his early novels to her in affectionate terms. When the quarrels began the husband's mother made things worse, and after disgraceful scenes had been enacted, a separation was agreed to. When Bulwer was a Cabinet Minister, he sought to get her confined in an asylum but she obtained her release, posted to the country town at which he was to present himself for re-election and harangued the farmers from a wagon.

Their only surviving child Mr Robert Lytton, now rising fast in the diplomatic world, and known as "Owen Meredith" undertook to live with his mother and keep her from mischief, but her violence became at last real insanity. Some of her books such as "Cheveley, or the Man of Honor" are clever enough though the hatred of her husband which they reveal is sickening. She extended this feeling to his friends, and "Mr. Ben Araby" (Disraeli) and Mr Dickens figures prominently in her works. When Mr Dickens took the world into his confidence and narrated the fact of his separation from his wife, Lady Bulwer was in ecstacies. She claimed it as proving the justice of all she had said.

Sir Henry Bulwer, Lord Lytton's brother still professes Radicalism and hopes to sit in the new House of Commons as an advanced Liberal.

[From the Chicago Tribune Sept. 2]

Brigadier General N G Evans, Confederate States Army, commander of the Confederate forces at the battle of Ball's Bluff, died at Midway, Alabama on Monday last.

Up to the time of the fearful coal mine disaster in England on Thursday there had been no less than 449 lives lost in the British collieries, 286 by fire damp explosions and the remainder by falls of roof and coal. The last disaster will probably carry the total loss of life during the year to over 700.

The Austrian Government has fitted out and dispatched from Trieste an expedition to sail around the world. It is under the command of Carl Sherzer. The objects of the enterprise are to introduce the products of Austrian industry into distant markets and to extend the commerce of the Empire. The expedition is under special instructions to visit the principal ports of China and Japan, and to proceed thence to California and cruise along the South American coast.

Hon T A R Nelson made very [illegible] tures last Tuesday, in the Knoxville Chancery Court, on the Methodist Church South. He said that its secession from the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1844 was the entering-wedge of the great rebellion, and added that he was fearful that if the Southern Church is continued as a church organization, it will be the cause of bringing on the country another bloody war. He further said that there was no use for such an organization as the Church South.

It is certain that the question of a postal telegraph will be vigorously pushed in Congress this winter. The bill of E B Washburn, now in the hands of the post-office committee of the House provides for the building of new telegraph lines by the Government. He says he has no particular partiality for this measure, and is entirely ready to co operate in urging the adoption of the other bill looking to contracts with existing lines, which Mr Gardner Hubbard is now advocating before the Western Boards of Trade, if it shall be found on further consideration that this has more friends than his bill.

The New York Times hopes that Congress, at the coming session will take up and pass the measure which was before it at the last session, for legalizing contracts in gold. It is a measure of prime importance and would go far toward restoring the healthful working of our financial system. We understand that it will be urged by the chairman and other members of the finance committee, with a good prospect of its passage. It is warmly favored by the Secretary of the Treasury.

SAVING BANKS.—The service rendered to a community by these institutions in collecting and utilizing capital which otherwise would be hoarded and kept out of circulation, is even less than their good effects in the formation of habits of economy and independence. And in this respect the "dime savings banks," many of which are in successful operation in the East, are especially useful. Many a one lays the foundation of a little independence by depositing in them ten cents fifty cents or a dollar who would not do so were it necessary to begin with a larger sum.

How much business is done by these institutions may be seen from the report of one of them the Union Dime Savings Bank of New York which has been seven years in existence. During that time 33 610 accounts have been opened and at the present time it has 17 000 depositors. The immediate assets are over $3 000 000 and the deposits range all the way from the modest dime to $5 000. Many of the accounts which now show a respectable balance to the credit of the depositor began with a single dime. Not only has it taught the early practice of wholesome economy in children but many parents have been by the example of the young brought to deposit their savings with incalculable advantage to them in many ways.

The Mayor of Cumminsville Ohio proposes to arrest the progress of all vehicles in the streets of that city after dark and have them searched for stolen chickens. On carrying out this idea the officers arrested three Cincinnati business men the other night and eventually locked them up. Proceedings have been instituted against the officers and the Mayor has been arrested for oppression in [illegible]

Getting Back to a Specie Basis

No [illegible] has [illegible] been introduced in Congress looking to the resumption of specie payments by the Government. It must be apparent to every one that if the Treasury [illegible] [illegible] to take up the outstanding notes of the Government it must have on hand an amount almost equal to the notes outstanding, otherwise there will be a tremendous rush upon it. [illegible] the effort will fail, entailing loss both upon the people and the Government.

There are some who propose that the Government shall go into the money markets of the world and borrow gold enough to enable it to resume. But resumption by the Government, difficult as it will be, is only a small part of the problem. The great question is, how shall the debtor classes of the country be able to resume also, inasmuch as they will be compelled to buy gold as soon as the Government begins.

The debtor class, according to the Chicago Tribune's estimates owe their creditors at least three thousand million dollars. Their debts exceed the national debt. They are in debt for the purchase of property, valued by the currency standard. That currency for four years past has had an average purchasing power of seventy per cent of gold. Reducing the value of the property received to the gold standard the debtors have received 210 millions of property, and have given their obligation to pay 3,000 millions of lawful money therefor. Let the Government resume to-morrow, or next week, as some advise, and the currency will suddenly become equal to coin in value, and the debtor class will be called upon to pay their creditors 900 millions more than they equitably owe them, 900 millions more than the consideration received from them.

The Government has outstanding, in round numbers, four hundred and fifty millions of demand notes of all descriptions, which have a purchasing power of three hundred and thirty millions. To redeem these in coin would only inflict a loss of one hundred and thirty millions on the Government, but what it loses, the note-holder, which includes everybody, would gain, as their money would be worth thirty cents on the dollar more than it is, and the Government would soon be reimbursed for its loss by the large reduction of expenses of administration, which could be effected on a specie basis. But to the debtor class immediate resumption would entail a dead loss not measured by even 900 millions, because vast amounts of property would be sacrificed at forced sales to satisfy judgments and executions. The bankrupt courts, and all the courts, marshals, sheriffs, bailiffs and constables would be overwhelmed with business, just as undertakers, sextons, grave-diggers and proctors are when pestilence stalketh abroad.

The problem, then, for Congress to solve is not exclusively how the Government shall redeem or retire its notes, but also embraces the other and far more difficult question: How shall the great debtor class resume without producing a financial convulsion of the most frightful dimensions? Senator Morton's bill contemplates resumption by the Government in July, 1871, which may give sufficient time for the business of the country to work back to a gold standard.

SPECIAL SESSION.—The Unionist seconds the call so frantically made by the Democrats for a special session of the Legislature. Its argument on the subject is a tolerable rehash of the several bulletins issued by Col Chapman,—indicating that the writer has been making those bulletins the subject of profound and laborious study for the space of several weeks. There is a bit of sweet history connected with the course the Unionist is taking which we do not now care to divulge; it is sufficient to say that its object is a wholly selfish one and has no reference whatever to the good of the State at large. It argues that the State will lose a great deal by being compelled to pay interest on warrants. But it does not consider that the expense of elections and of a special session would be very large,—quite as large as the amount of interest to be paid. We admit that the dilemma is an awkward one in some respects; it is just what we knew it would be when the Democratic majority refused to pass the appropriation bill. We have no advice to give the Governor on this subject because he hasn't asked it, any more than he has asked the Unionist, and of course he will act in the matter as he deems best; but our judgment is that as the Democrats fooled away the whole usual session and several days more in denouncing and insulting Congress and a majority of the American people in annulling the Constitution of the United States, and in other highly "Democratic" proceedings,—neglecting Oregon interests and laboring solely for partisan objects,—no very useful or satisfactory results could ensue from another session of the same body. Nobody, so far as we have ever heard, wants a special session except those who desire a further opportunity to exhibit their partisanship, or perhaps three or four more who are looking with wistful eyes at the State Treasury.

THE JEW ORDER.—We publish to-day a correspondence on the subject of the "Jew order" so-called which was issued by Gen Grant during the war and which brought so much abuse upon him during the late campaign. It was taken as an attack upon the Jews as a people and was continually cited as proof of Grant's bigotry and intolerance. The President elect saves himself and his friends all trouble in the way of defending the document by emphatically remarking: "I do not pretend to sustain the order." The order was written without reflection at a time when he was incensed by a reprimand received from Washington for permitting acts which Jews within his lines were engaged in. Gen Grant's letter is a frank and manly confession of a mistake or a hasty error, and must be satisfactory to both his friends and his enemies of the Hebrew race.

THE TRUE "DEMOCRATIC" SOLUTION.—The Cincinnati Enquirer and New York World have been discussing the question as to how the national debt shall be paid, but Brick Pomeroy steps in and settles the issue, and settles it according to views of Oregon Democrats. He says: "The World and the Cincinnati Enquirer are wasting time, ink and space in discussing the mode of payment of the Federal Bonds. Nonsense. Why wrangle about what will never happen in any form? The day has gone by for considering how the bonds shall be paid. They will never be paid at all, and therefore the how is of no consequence."

ALABAMA.—In this State the vote for President was as follows, Grant, 76,366; Seymour, 72,086. Grant's majority, 4,280. Total vote, 148,452. Total vote in 1860, 90,357.

The Eight Hour Stupidity

Some time ago Congress was weak enough to pass an act making eight hours a legal day's work for Government employes. It was one of those humbug ad captandum measures which legislative bodies with a mistaken view of the intelligence of the public, often resort to. The law went into operation but the Government authorities in a number of places declined to pay full wages for eight hours labor. The matter was referred to the Attorney General of the United States for a decision. He decided that employes were entitled to no more and no less wages than their work was worth, compared with the compensation given by private establishments doing similar business. If a Government employe performs as much work in eight hours as an employe of a private establishment in ten, he is entitled to the same wages. But if he performs only eight tenths as much labor he should be paid only eight-tenths as much wages. A few days ago Senator Conness introduced a bill giving ten hours' wages for eight hours' work. But the Senate subsequently refused to consider it. This was a sensible thing. The House also did a sensible and just thing two or three days since when it voted that the female employes of the Government should receive as much pay as males, for the same amount of work. In regard to this eight-hour business we print the following sensible observations from a contemporary:

> This is no time for extravagance in national expenditures, even in minor matters. Congress will assemble under a pledge of strict economy. While we have no objection to reducing the number of hours of labor in the Government employ, we have decided objections to increasing the wages. Government employes ought not to be made to be made a favored class. They had light work and high wages under the old rule. They rarely really work like mechanics and laborers in private employ. Thousands of them never really worked eight full hours, while receiving better pay than other laborers. And they have more holidays than other laborers, furloughs, leaves of absence and other extra privileges which the employes of private persons and companies do not receive. The mechanics and laborers of the country, as a body, could not have meant to ask of Congress to make of Government clerks and laborers an aristocracy and a privileged class to receive higher wages for less work than the great mass of laborers and mechanics receive who are not in the Government service. The tax payers cannot help regarding such a rule as extravagant, oppressive and wrong in principle. Eight hours time for a day, if the workmen desire it, is well enough, but ten hours' pay for eight hours work is not well, especially while workmen who do not happen to enjoy the favor of politicians and Government officers, and who cannot obtain Government situations, have to work a full ten hours for less wages.

TAMMANY.—We commend to Oregon Democrats, who with one accord are cursing the Tammany organization and its management the following remarks from a recent speech made by John T Hoffman, Governor elect of New York: "It seems almost as yesterday when first going to the City of New York I made my first visit to the old Wigwam in the old part of the city, and I look at that part now, where is concentrated so much power with pride. I look at that great length of Democracy reared by the same organization, and which is growing to such vast proportions. To-day, it represents more than it ever did. Why is it so? It is because the organization has always been true to itself. It has fought the battles of the party nobly. Many have gone out of it and fought against it, but after the organization had beaten them it was always ready to receive them back when they came. And so old Tammany is gaining strength and greater power, and the Democracy from the Potomac to the Pacific are wedded to this organization."

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.—It requires about $130,000,000 yearly to pay the interest on the national debt. The Treasury report just issued, states that the soldiers' bounties paid during the past year amount to $44,000,000. The sum of $24,000,000 has gone for pensions. Over $25,000,000 has gone into the Pacific Railroad. The Indian wars have cost $15,000,000. Over $7,000,000 was paid for Alaska. These expenditures alone foot up $245,000,000, or two-thirds of the whole amount which Johnson complains has been squandered. Which of these sums would he have reduced? The cost of reconstruction including the Freedmen's Bureau, during the same period has been less than $5,000,000. It is false, then, to assert that the public money has been wasted. The expenses growing out of the war, as interest, bounties, pensions, etc, are what swallows up the money.

THE TRICK OF PROPHECY.—The Herald thinks it very doubtful whether the Republicans carry a single State in the next Presidential election. Before the late election, the Herald demonstrated by arithmetical calculations that the Republicans would carry only four States. That paper seems to be anxious to make a reputation as a prophet. A quaint author says that the true trick of prophecy is to be sure to give time enough for occurrence of the events which are to be predicted. The Herald should therefore with great solemnity proclaim that the Republican party will not carry a State in the election of 1968.

UNSEEMLY DELAY.—If Col Chapman, instead of continuing to denounce the Republican members of the Legislature for resigning, would resign himself in obedience to the instructions given him by the people of this county last month, he would do a sensible thing. Notwithstanding he has been repudiated and condemned, he speaks of himself as one of the "representatives of the people." Why don't he put in practice the principles he voted for when he and his brethren instructed Senators Williams and Corbett to resign? His delay is very unseemly.

AFTER EM.—The Yamhill Courier has given up the contest on the nigger question, and is devoting its whole energies to the "Chinese problem." But the arguments it is using are not quite conclusive, being in fact the same that were employed by Col Chapman and so triumphantly refuted by Dr Jim in the controversy which took place between those two gentlemen a short time ago.

THE "POVERTY STRICKEN."—A New York paper says that over forty thousand persons in that city live by borrowing money. This class has its representatives in all parts of the country. One of their employments is to denounce the national debt, bewail the sad fate of the "poor man," curse Congress and in despairing tones assert that "Our taxes are greater than we can bear!"

ANOTHER FIRE AT LA GRANDE.—Col. Buckle who arrived down from La Grande Saturday evening reports that another fire occurred at that place last Wednesday night, which consumed the livery stable of George C[illegible]gan. The loss amounts to between $[illegible] and $5[illegible]. There were in the stable a large quantity of hay and [illegible] other feed, twelve horses and four buggies—all of which were burned. The fire being discovered in the hay loft leads to the conclusion that it was the work of an incendiary.

FROM CAMP HARNEY.—Lieut W. I. Hedeson of the 1st U S Cavalry arrived in this city Saturday night direct from Camp Harney, under orders to report at Headquarters of the Department. He reports everything quiet and in good condition at the eastern posts. The weather was extremely cold, ice being already several inches thick and the snow on the mountains very deep.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 19

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Dec 18.—In the Senate, Ramsey reported a bill abolishing the franking privilege and recommended its passage.

Edmunds introduced a bill respecting the admission of Georgia and providing a Provisional Government for that State, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Trumbull from the Judiciary Committee reported Sumner's resolution declaring the necessity of further guarantees in the reconstruction of the South, recommending its indefinite postponement.

Morton introduced a bill in reference to the site of the Executive Mansion, which was referred.

Williams introduced a bill for the better administration of justice in the Territories. Referred.

The Senate held a brief executive session. A resolution was adopted asking the Secretary of the Interior for information as to whether the Indians recently attacked by Custer were hostile or peaceable.

The Senate took up the resolution expressing sympathy with the people of Spain. Davis objected to the latter part of the resolution recommending the abolition of slavery and characterized it as a piece of officious impertinence. Saulsbury agreed with Davis. The resolution passed.

It reads: The resolution sympathises with the efforts of the people of Spain to establish a more liberal form of Government, and expresses the hope that it may be conducted in such a manner as will promote the triumph of liberal institutions and earnestly appeals to the people not to allow the present opportunity to pass without securing immediate emancipation of the slaves and finally the abolition of slavery throughout the Spanish dominion.

The Clerk of the House appeared with a resolution on the death of Thad Stevens. Cameron, Buckalew, Morrill and Sumner delivered eulogies. The Senate adjourned to Monday, having first adopted appropriate resolutions on the death of Stevens.

In the House a resolution to print 10,000 copies of the eulogies delivered yesterday on Thad. Stevens was adopted.

Washburne reported a pension bill which appropriates $24,000,000. Its consideration was postponed till January 5th.

Sypher presented the credentials of Mainard, a colored representative from Louisiana, which were referred to the Committee on Elections.

A number of bills and resolutions were introduced and referred to committees.

Julian reported a bill which passed extending the provisions of the Pension Act to orphan children of deceased soldiers.

The death of Finney of Pennsylvania was announced and appropriate remarks were made by Pettis, O'Neal, Randall and Woodward and a committee was appointed to receive the remains at New York upon their arrival from Brussels and accompany them to the Pennsylvania House. Adjourned till Monday.

WASHINGTON, Dec 17.—The Senate to-day confirmed the appointment of Charles H. Poor, as Rear Admiral in the Navy. Various other appointments were confirmed in the same service.

A bill was introduced in the Senate by Morton which provides for the purchase of about thirty acres of land on Meridian Hill as a site for an Executive Mansion and appropriates $150,000 for that purpose.

The Senate Committee of Investigation on the alleged corruption in connection with the purchase of Alaska, examined nearly all the leading newspaper correspondence to-day.

Arkansas Affairs.

MEMPHIS, Dec 19.—The Avalanche's Little Rock special says the latest information from Augusta shows that that place is nearly deserted by the citizens. Those remaining hourly expect an attack upon the militia from the outsiders.

In the Legislature, Brooks introduced a bill requiring all persons to withdraw from the Ku Klux within thirty days, under penalty of imprisonment for ten years in the penitentiary, which was ordered printed.

A resolution was adopted [illegible] the Governor's proclamation of martial law in Conway county.

Miscellaneous.

RICHMOND, Dec 19.—The farm of Ex Governor Wise, in Princess Ann county, so long held by the Government, was yesterday surrendered to the owners.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec 19.—A meeting of the Farragut Prize Association was held last evening and a letter from Admiral Farragut read stating that he was doing all in his power to forward the claims of his men for prize money for captures. A number of other letters from naval officers were read.

NEW YORK, Dec 19.—A New Orleans special to the Herald says the steamer Havana, which cleared from New York for New Orleans as a merchant vessel, hoisted the Peruvian flag when the crew mutinied and were discharged. Custom House officers boarded her on Friday. The Captain refused to enter her at the Custom House, on the plea that she is a Peruvian naval vessel. Collector Fuller demanded of the Peruvian officials the production of the vessel's papers, showing by what authority a vessel clearing at New York as a merchantman for New Orleans can appear as a vessel of war. Not getting any satisfaction to-morrow, he will seize the vessel, unless he gets contrary orders from Secretary McCulloch. The same difficulty occurred when the iron clads left. Fuller was firm but Seward harmonized the matter. Garcia ignores the course of the collectors and marshals, and is determined to carry his point.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

PARIS, Dec 8.—It is rumored that the Turkish Admiral (Hobard Pascha) followed the Greek steamer Empress into the port of Syria and sunk her.

The Emperor and Empress to-day visited Queen Isabella.

GIBRALTAR, Dec 18.—There was a heavy shock of earthquake here to-day, but caused no damage to life or property.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec 18.—It is officially announced that the Sultan has resolved to enforce the demands of Greece. Four frigates have sailed for the Archipelago.

CADIZ, Dec 17.—The city is tranquil and recent fugitives are returning to their homes.

PARIS, Dec 19.—Dispatches report that Turkish ships have been sent to Greek waters to establish a blockade, and that Turkish troops are collecting on the Greek frontier to prevent volunteers from making incursions into Thessaly and Macedonia.

The following is the latest which has been received from the East. The Greek Government has dispatched two men of war to Syra to demand of Seabool Pasha that he shall not obstruct the free entrance of the harbor. There were three foreign vessels at Syra, belonging respectively to the French, British and Prussian navies. Seabool Pasha will not attempt to blockade Syra, and has already allowed the Greek ships to enter the harbor.

A letter from Athens of the 12th represents the city as a scene of great popular animation. Bands of men are flocking from the interior and parading the streets. Great bitterness of feeling is being shown against the French Admiral, who is unpopular, on account of the energetic demands he had made on the Greek Government to preserve peace.

NEW YORK, Dec 19.—The Herald's Constantinople special says a rumor is current to the effect that the Turkish Admiral (Seabool Pasha) followed the Greek steamer E[illegible] into a harbor of Syra. It is reported that the commander of the French war steamer F[illegible] requested the Turkish Admiral not to adopt coercive measures till he heard from Constantinople. This the Admiral agreed to do and now awaits orders.

A Madrid special to the Herald says it is announced there that a conspiracy has been discovered at Navarre, and several arrests of parties implicated, have been made in Cadiz notwithstanding the proclamation of clemency recently issued by the leaders in the late insurrection.

General Dulce sailed with the fleet for Cuba to-day.

LONDON, Dec 19.—The French official journals say that the changes in the ministry are in confirmation of the Emperor's programme of policy, which is liberal at home and pacific abroad.

FROM THE NORTH

VICTORIA, Dec 19.—A new stretch of cable was successfully laid to-day between San Juan and Lopez Islands, placing Victoria in telegraphic communication again with the main line.

The Legislature of British Columbia was formally opened yesterday by Gov Seymour. His speech was received and gives usual satisfaction. In regard to confederation he says the question remains stationary for the present. Pending the settlement of the Hudson Bay Company's claims to the North West Territory he strongly recommended the establishment of a Colonial Savings Bank under the management of the Government and ends by congratulating the Colony on its improved condition and encouraging prospects.

A farmer named Bartlett, on Salt Spring island, was found lying in his house a few days since with his back riddled with buck shot and his throat cut from ear to ear. No traces of the murderer have been discovered.

The revenue cutter Wyanda arrived yesterday, and sails for Sitka on Wednesday next.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 19.—In the 4th District Court to-day Charles O'Neil, on trial for the murder of his wife, withdrew the plea of guilty of murder and pleaded guilty of manslaughter. Thursday next was fixed for pronouncing sentence.

An attempt was made to-day to defraud the Bank of California by a man presenting a forged check for $3,[illegible]00. Suspicion was aroused and an officer of the Bank proceeded with a man to the office of a well known firm when the man fled. No arrests.

The steamer [illegible] from San Diego brought 131 bars of bullion from the [illegible] Pine mine, Inyo county.

On Monday the Insurance Companies doing fire underwriting business in this city will advance the rates of premium as follows: On 1st and 2d class brick the rate will be [illegible] cents, on 3d class brick [illegible] [illegible] hundred, on warehouses [illegible] cents and on dwellings [illegible] cents. The insurance will be [illegible] the smallest advance being 3d class brick from 70, largest detached dwellings from 90 to [illegible] cents on the $100. There will be no change on special and hazardous rates. The companies doing business here have all agreed to this by writings duly executed and comprise the following companies: Pacific, Union, Fireman's Fund and Occidental, Home Mutual and People's of local companies, and Eastern companies: Aetna, Hartford, Phoenix, Hartford, Home, New York, North American, New York, Manhattan, New York, and Phoenix, Brooklyn; and four foreign companies, Liverpool, London and Globe, Hamburg-Bremen, North British, Imperial and Northern.

STATE ITEMS

Rev Mr Bushnell, President of Albany College has resigned his position. Cause, ill health.

The movement to complete the organization of a fire company at Albany is going on.

The Albany Democrat says: "A Water Ditch Company was organized at Lebanon on the 11th inst., the object being to dig a ditch or canal from a given point of the South Santiam to Lebanon for manufacturing purposes. We understand it is the object of the Company ultimately to extend the ditch to Albany. The following persons are the Directors: L. Elkins, Jeremiah Ralston, Dr Biddle, John Bell, M. Harwell. Mr Elkins is President."

A young man named Joseph Carr concluded to drown himself at Albany a few days ago and jumped into the river, but was rescued. He then tried to take a dose of morphine but was foiled again. He always took care to select witnesses. After these two attempts he cleared out. It was the old story of disappointed love.

The Corvallis Gazette learns that a little child of Rev Philip Starr, of the Belknap settlement, was so badly scalded a few days since, by falling into a vessel of hot water, that its recovery is doubtful.

The Corvallis people held another meeting the other day to consider the Yaquina railroad question. They propose to make a preliminary survey and ask Congress for aid.

The Eugene Guard says: "The gambling law, which went into effect on Friday last, has made sad havoc among the 'cardists' of our town. This vice has been carried on to an alarming extent in our community of late, and we are truly glad that it has been stopped."

CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be virtuous on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least virtue a person can possess. It is not always by giving money to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can only show their charity. A good advice is often better than money, for instance: Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line, is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel and being certain that at that House they can purchase to the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied!

THE EXPLANATION.—The Unionist has the following in relation to the returns of poll lists from Multnomah county about which we had something to say a few days ago: "A few days since we stated that Multnomah county only returned a poll list of 436 from a voting population [illegible]. At the same time the organ was requested to explain [illegible]. The OREGONIAN, remarking upon this thing, says: 'Is it possible that there are nineteen hundred and sixty three voters in Multnomah exempt from [illegible] tax. The only persons exempt are those [illegible] years [illegible] firemen and persons [illegible] fifty years [illegible] county. Are there nineteen hundred and sixty three persons of these classes?' Not much. [illegible] something in this business—careless [illegible] erroneous returns. This provoke the Herald and that paper has replied by attempting to throw dust into the eyes of the public. Our [illegible] answered. The Herald says [illegible] has been four hundred and eighty-six dollars worth of poll taxes collected in that county in 1868—[illegible] 1867. If this is so, then there must have been fraudulent returns made to the Secretary of [illegible] office. [illegible] nine hundred and sixty-five [illegible] nine hundred and eighty-eight, and in 1868 four [illegible] 1867 nine hundred [illegible] six. In the two former years [illegible] was Assessor, now Costello, Democrat [illegible] Republican. [illegible] on this subject we will give [illegible] of the other counties. In 1866 [illegible] with a vote of 1,200 returned a poll list [illegible] and in 1868 when the vote [illegible] the poll list is 904. This falling [illegible] the poll list is no doubt owing to [illegible] the inefficient assessor elected last June at a time when the majority was such that any party were irrespective of worth. Clackamas, a Republican county, returned in 1866, 886 polls, and, in 1867 947, and in 1868, with a vote of 1,280, the poll tax return is 1,024, yet Multnomah, lying adjoining and with a vote of 2,802 in June, pays only 436 polls, less than half what Clackamas pays. Marion, another Republican county, in 1866 returned 1,801 and in 1867 was 2,464, the poll list for 1868, not being in yet is not reported. Wasco county, a Democratic stronghold, in 1866, returned 496 polls, in 1867 561, and in 1868 with a vote of 738, a poll list of 36 is returned. Umatilla, another Democratic county [illegible] returns a poll list for 1866, 496, and in 1867 only a list of [illegible], yet in 1868 she throws a vote of 734. The poll list [illegible] this year is not in yet from these [illegible], yet, taking the past as a guide, it will not near come up to the vote. There may be no fraud in these [illegible], but it looks very suspicious. The eastern counties will, no doubt, cry floating population, but one of two things is plain: there is either fraud in the election or there is fraud in the return of assessment rolls. [illegible] county cannot claim a loose population [illegible]. When there is an election men are always ready to vote. If they are legally exempt from paying a poll tax, by reason of non residence, then should they be debarred from the privilege of voting. Jackson county, which is on the border, always returned a full list [illegible] her assessor was of the right stamp, but when her [illegible] is not up to the standard her poll list falls off over a hundred, notwithstanding her voting population [illegible]. Explain again, Mr. Herald, we are not yet [illegible]. You have made a mistake this time; your figures and the official returns don't agree."

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—We learn from the Register that a regular meeting of the Clarke County Educational Association was held at Vancouver on [illegible]. We clip the following items: A party [illegible] started on Dec 8th to find a pass south of [illegible]. As far as they have [illegible]. A meeting of the Board of [illegible] of the Clarke County Agricultural Society will be held at [illegible] Hall, on Monday, 28th inst., at 1 o'clock P. M. [illegible] of the Board are earnestly requested to attend, as important business will be transacted. [illegible] o'clock on the morning of the 16th some [illegible] to break into the store of Michael Wintler, on Main street. They were at work on the door, and had a [illegible] extinguished and fled [illegible]. T. H. P[illegible] [illegible] surveying up the Cowlitz river. Mr. [illegible] from Vancouver to [illegible] Patterson's Mill, thence to the [illegible] Fork of Lewis river, over the South Fork to [illegible], thence across both forks of [illegible] river to Martin's [illegible], at which point he left. [illegible] were elected officers of Vancouver Fire [illegible], at the annual [illegible] held on [illegible] Foreman, Michael Wintler, 1st Assistant, J. [illegible] FOR LUMBER.—[illegible] chartered and is now on her way to the [illegible] river to take a [illegible] of lumber from the St. Helens [illegible]. Of late it has been extremely difficult to obtain [illegible] the pound [illegible] paying [illegible]. While we have produce to ship, the ship [illegible] all [illegible] to [illegible]. This works [illegible] lumber interests. The St. [illegible] this state of things, is only [illegible]. Why do not the mills enter into [illegible] and build their own [illegible]. They are the very men to start ship building [illegible], so long [illegible]. The Simpson Brothers of Coos Bay first [illegible] the [illegible] of vessels to carry off their own [illegible], to be the difficulty of procuring [illegible], and now they have [illegible] of over [illegible] the [illegible] coast and produ[cing] [illegible]. What they have done at Coos Bay, may be done by others on the Columbia river.

Every comrade is expected to be present.

LARGE PORKERS.—Messrs. Spaulding & [illegible] shipped to the Active [illegible] a three year old pig which weighed over six hundred pounds. This [illegible] her [illegible] start in Yamhill county on the farm of Mr [illegible] Butler, near Wapato Lake. Mr. B. has a few [illegible] of the same sort left. There are a couple of hogs now on exhibition at the [illegible] Market, one weighing about seven hundred and the other over one thousand pounds, raised and fatted by a Mr. Fuller, near Corvallis, Benton county. Grass Oregon is keeping up its reputation as a [illegible].

A BURGLAR COMES TO GRIEF.—On Saturday night, about [illegible] o'clock, a negro burglar was detected in the store of [illegible] Meier on Front street. At the moment some persons entered the [illegible] the fellow jumped through a back window, breaking the sash, and fell several feet upon the wharf below, where he was subsequently found badly hurt and bleeding profusely. He admitted that he was the burglar and was taken to jail to await an examination this morning.

STUCK ON A ROCK.—The steamer Nez Perce Chief, while descending the Columbia river last Wednesday, ran upon a sunken rock at Camp Encampment, twenty five miles below Umatilla and stuck fast. She still [illegible] there when the Owyhee came down on Thursday, though it was thought she was not seriously damaged and would be got off in a short time. The latter steamer took off her passengers and freight and brought them down to Celilo on Friday.

ARRIVED.—The bark Almeda arrived at this city in tow of one of the [illegible] river steamers at about noon Saturday. Capt. Rogers, the pilot, reports that the Zephyr is at Astoria wes[t] bound. She is the [illegible] [illegible] more than [illegible] week [illegible] the bar. Severe gales have been prevailing almost constantly on the lower river for the last [illegible] weeks.

SOIREE.—The advantage of having the Saturday night soiree in a [illegible] [illegible] was again illustrated Saturday evening, on which occasion Prof. Cardinell had his soiree in the Washington Guards' Armory. There was a very large attendance and everybody enjoyed themselves.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—The parents and children of the St. Stephen's Chapel congregation will have a Christmas tree in the Chapel on Thursday evening.

THE EXPLANATION.—The [illegible] has the following in [illegible] to the return of poll lists for Multnomah county, [illegible] which we had something to say a few days ago. [illegible] few days since we stated that Multnomah [illegible] a poll list of 496 [illegible] voting [illegible] at the same time the [illegible] were [illegible] the matter. The ORE[illegible] says: [illegible] sixty three [illegible] of poll tax [illegible] years of age [illegible] in the [illegible] three per cent [illegible] is evidently something [illegible] in the assessment [illegible] the [illegible], and that paper has [illegible] throw dust into the eyes of the public [illegible] is not one factor [illegible] The Herald says [illegible] has been four hundred and eighty [illegible] of poll taxes collected [illegible] there was [illegible] If this is [illegible] last returns made to the Secretary of [illegible] in 1868 [illegible] returned to the Sec[illegible] a poll list of nine [illegible] nine hundred and eighty eight, and in 1866 [illegible] and thirty six. In the two former years [illegible] was Assessor [illegible] Democratic [illegible] that office. While on this subject we [illegible] figures of some of the [illegible] In 18[illegible] county with a vote of 1,500 returned a poll [illegible] and in 1867 [illegible] and in 1868 with [illegible] the poll list is 904. The falling [illegible] poll list, is no doubt owing [illegible] elected last June at a time when [illegible] such that any party were irrespective [illegible] a Republican county, returned in [illegible] in 186[illegible] 947 and in 1868 with a [illegible] the poll tax return is 1,024 yet [illegible] grand with a vote of 2,302 in June [illegible] polls, less than half what Clackamas [illegible] another Republican county in 1866 [illegible] and in 1867, was 2,464 the poll list [illegible] in yet, is not reported. Wasco county [illegible] in 1866 returned 406 polls [illegible] 1868 with a vote of [illegible], a poll list of [illegible] Umatilla, another Democratic county [illegible] list for 1866 496, and in 1867 only a list of [illegible] throws a vote of 24. The poll list [illegible] not in yet from these counties, yet, taking [illegible], it will not near come up to the vote [illegible] fraud in these matters, but it looks very [illegible] eastern counties will [illegible] but one of two things is plain [illegible] fraud in the elections or there is fraud in [illegible] poll rolls. Multnomah county can [illegible] to defend it from accusation [illegible] men are always ready [illegible] vote [illegible] except from paying a poll tax [illegible] then should they be excluded [illegible] of voting. Jackson county, which is [illegible] returned a full list when her as[illegible] right stamp but when her assessor is [illegible] her poll list falls off over a hun[illegible] her voting population increases [illegible] Mr Herald we are not yet satis[illegible] made a mistake this time your figures don't agree."

[illegible]—We learn from the Register that a [illegible] of the Clarke County Educational Asso[illegible] at Vancouver on Saturday. We clip the [illegible] A party headed by Messrs. [illegible] TIMBER.—The barkentine Adele has [illegible] chartered and is now on her way to the [illegible] to take a cargo of three hundred thousand [illegible] from the St. Helens mills. Of late it has [illegible] difficult to obtain [illegible] is for the lumber [illegible] paying a larger profit. While [illegible] to ship, the ship masters all prefer to [illegible] works something of a hardship upon [illegible] The St. Helens mill, owing to this [illegible], is only running upon three-quarters [illegible] not the mills enter into combination and [illegible] vessels? They are the very men to start [illegible] business so long talked about. The [illegible] of Coos Bay first began the building of [illegible] off their own lumber, being driven to it [illegible] of procuring charters, and now they have [illegible] running in all the trades of [illegible] producing an income of immense propor[illegible] they have done at Coos Bay may be done by [illegible] Columbia river.

One day while promenading the streets of the town
With a very poor chapeau surmounting my crown,
I met an old friend whom my taste did not flatter
For he asked me indignantly—"Who's your Hatter?"

"My good friend," I answered, "of such I have none,
'Tis long since I made the acquaintance of one
My head gear, I know, is all going to seed,
But I'll visit your Hatter, if you'll take the lead."

"Agreed," he replied as we sauntered along
And making our way through the gay busy throng
Each puffing to silence a fragrant cigar
We stopped at the Corner—at MUESSDORFFER'S Bazaar!

We found the Emporium of Fashion well stored
With Hats and Caps fit for a lord
I was speedily suited in price fit and style
And observed to my friend with a satisfied smile
"Your judgment in this as in most other matters
Is unerring for MUESSDORFFER's the Hatter of Hatters!"

Let the leader of Fashion discourse as he may,
And the Hatter whatever he pleases can say
But Corner Morrison and Front streets always for me
For MUESSDORFFER the Hatter of Portland is he!

ANNUAL GRAND OPENING
SANTA CLAUS' BUDGET!
AT
McCORMICK'S BOOK STORE!
WHERE MY HEAD-QUARTERS!
HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
For the past Seven Years,
AND WHERE
I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL
DURING THE COMING FESTIVAL
THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE
The Christmas and New Year's HOLIDAYS!
I herewith issue my Annual PROCLAMATION!!!

Dear Parents and Children once more I appear
And wish you good Christmas and Happy New Year!
I've brought you glad tidings—I've opened once more
My Budget of Wonders—at McCormick's Book Store!
I've spread out my treasures so give me a call
And view the nice GIFTS I've procured for you all
My Presents this year were conveyed to the town
By Mercer's new clipper the swift Sallie Brown
The stock's most complete. The assortment comprises
Curiosities rare of all shapes and all sizes!
I've Dollies that talk—I've babies that dance
Some very handsome, (I purchased in France)
I've Fish that can swim—I've Roosters who strive
To crow so like nature you'd think they're alive
I've Guns and I've Cannon—I've neat Savings Banks,
And Soldiers that look very neat when in ranks
I've Puzzles, and Pistols. Then Christmas to keep
I've Candles Reflectors and Brackets—a heap
I've beautiful Baskets (a nice gift for Ma)
And handsome Cigar Stands—just suited for Pa!
While there's nothing so welcome to uncle or aunt
As a beautiful portrait of President Grant
I've Work Boxes—handsome as ever were made—
With ladies utensils all nicely arrayed
I've nice setts of China—I've Vases of Flowers,
And Musical Boxes that play at all hours
I've Furniture, Villages Steamboats, and Blocks,
That gay little joker, called Jack-in-the-Box!
I've Tables, and Dressers, of China or delf,
I've nice Solitaire that you play by yourself!
I've new Magic Lanterns—a beautiful sight
To make all good children merry at night.
For girls at school I've a nice Skipping Rope,
And for family fun I've the new Zoetrope!
I've Games that instruct, and Books that amuse,
For Gifts to good people I never refuse.
In fine I've got all that each heart could desire,
To name them all over your patience I'd tire,
But call on me early or call on me late,
I'll visit your houses all over this State—
In Washington's clime—up in young Idaho—
I'm sure to find children wherever I go
I've travelled for years—you all must remember
I'll be Sixty nine at the end of December
My hair is all white, and my body doth tend
To the latest sensation—the new Grecian bend!
On Christmas-Eve night, as in bed you all sleep,
With pack on my back down each chimney I'll creep,
I'll lay out my Presents but oh 'twill be shocking,
Should I find a hole in any one's stocking!
So for HOLIDAY GOODS—for Dolls sweet as honey
Go to McCORMICK'S—you'll save half your money!
Nice Presents or Gifts—any kind you require
You'll find at the FRANKLIN—(the number enquire)
On FRONT STREET Near Alder—105,
In fact you can't miss it—and when you arrive,
Don't ask goods at cost for you'll find if you try
That goods sold at cost always cost very high!
But to purchasers all this maxim I'd give:
Live well yourself and then let others live!

[L. S.] Given at my Palace in Wonderland this 7th day of the Twelfth month being the second year of the reign of the third George in the land of Webfoot.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER NOS 695 AND 691 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

WOLFE'S
CELEBRATED AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself exclusively at my factory at Schiedam in Holland.

In [illegible] Gout and Rheumatism In Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys its efforts are prompt decided and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public and during that time he has received over 3 000 letters from physicians endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated growing districts is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper berry of Italy and is rectified by a peculiar process which expels from the spirit every acrid article.

As a means of preventing and correcting disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced on the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers new settlers and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible while in cases of dropsy general obstructions of the kidneys diseases of the bladder stricture dyspepsia and general debility it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork and a facsimile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable Druggists and country merchants.

Are you WEAK DEBILITATED NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC which will be found in

Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is sold by all Grocers and Apothecaries

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is recommended by all the Medical Faculty

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is imitated and counterfeited, and purchasers will have to use caution in purchasing.

WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS,
Imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE of New York, expressly for medicinal and private use.

WHAT DO YOU DRINK?

Swiss Life

[illegible] A[illegible] Consul at Zurich, Switzerland [illegible] State Department [illegible] says

In [illegible] the Swiss [illegible] He is in many ways [illegible] with [illegible]. His Winter is eight months long; his Summer four months long. He has no Spring and Autumn. He lives in a small [illegible] half house, half stable, [illegible] the torrent that rushes down his valley. He [illegible] few [illegible] patches and [illegible] which he yearly fertilizes with manure scraped from the road [illegible] which produce him at the best [illegible] a few potatoes. He owned a few goats, a few sheep and two or three cows. For the Winter food of those he employs half of his Summer in bringing on his back from little and almost inaccessible grass plots along the mountain a supply of hay [illegible] grow in these altitudes amid the rocks, that one might almost call them [illegible]. The other half of his Summer is consumed in gathering fuel for the Winter. His wife and children meanwhile cultivate the potatoes and other scanty vegetables and tend the flocks.

He barely exists—he does not live. His battle for existence is with the elements, with the most inhospitable conditions of nature, and it is a constant battle, and a battle which, when won, yields him but a bare existence, compelled by vigilant and ceaseless labor from cold and ice, rocks and barrenness, and all this under the ever impending peril of avalanches, land slides and floods. And now a flood has come, and his flocks and family, the very paths and roads by which he had procured a part of these, and the very soil where the rest had grown, are in a night swept away. The value in money of what he has lost may not be more than one or two hundred dollars, but deprived of it he is left a helpless beggar. Unless he forsakes his family and goes to the cities—to which he is a stranger—there is left to him not even the opportunity of utilizing his labor. He can earn nothing. The very roads by which he would go forth, even the sheep paths by which he was wont to procure fuel, are destroyed. Moreover, Winter is setting in, a season always hard for him to endure. Nor has he any hope for next Summer; his all is gone, and the possibility and hope of regaining it are also gone. It is upon such a population that the burden of the calamity has fallen, hence my remark that the figures of the loss by no means measure the disaster.

General Lee's College

One of the Boston journals has a letter from the seat of General Lee's college in Virginia describing the squalid town of Lexington, and the disorderly character of the students. The writer says:

Washington College, as I have said, contains some 500 students, nearly all from the South, and all of rebel proclivities. Squads of these patrol the streets nightly firing pistols and doing exactly as they please. No colored woman dares to go out after dark, and several cases have occurred in which freedwomen have been chased and their clothing torn off, and other violence shown them. These students have, at different times, gone through the town in the night cursing the United States and its officials. A mob one night armed pistols at the Military Commissioner, in his room at the hotel, and threatened to shoot him if he did not take in his head. Another party of six assaulted the Bureau agent at 11 o'clock P. M., and threatened to beat him, but a brace of Smith & Wesson pistols soon dispersed the cowards. Eight negroes have been severely wounded or killed in the streets of Lexington during the last year by white men, and no one has yet been brought to trial. For the last nine months no night has passed without pistol firing in the streets at night.

It will not do to let the people know how badly these students behave, how much they hate the United States government, how little they are taught of loyalty, how much their prejudices are increased by the teachings of their preceptors, drawn mostly from the rebel army, how they are being educated not to be good and loyal citizens, but to be ready at any time to turn against the General Government. No United States flag flies before this college or military institute, no patriotism is taught or displayed, but the arch traitor Lee is placed over them to instruct them in more treason, he being himself so great a master. This Washington College is a gathering together of young men of the South to be educated by persons antagonistic to the General Government and with their most prominent traitor at the head, and no good will ever come of it.

It is to such an institution that some Northern philanthropists, with a misguided generosity, have given their money and lent their names.

A Government Official in Search of Election News.—The Washington Star of November 9th says:

A well known official in the Treasury Department, celebrated for his dispatch of business and for his genial wit, gives an amusing account of his experience on the evening of the late election. The gentleman is a mild "Conservative," though he has not voted for years, and is no politician. He says: I came down street about 9 o'clock to hear the news, and went first to the Star office, where I found plenty of Republicans and the news pouring in all one way. I thought I'd like it in smaller doses, and concluded to try the Express office. Didn't find things quite so gushing and hilarious here as they might have been, but tripped up stairs expecting to see a crowd of Democrats. To my surprise I found but one man in the establishment; he was in the third story, where he was paid to stay and answer questions. "What's the news?" and I, "Republicans carry Connecticut by 3,000, Pennsylvania by 15,000, Ohio by 25,000, Indiana by 8,000, Illinois by—" I told him to stop his "damnable iteration," and left as quickly as I could. The streets were full of rollicking Republicans, and they ran against me at every turn. I then hurried to the Intelligencer office, and there I found Allen, assisted by half a dozen city politicians, cursing Tammany and Belmont. The atmosphere was blue around them, so I left. Started for the Metropolitan. Potts will have some good fellows around him. Didn't meet any Democrats—couldn't find Potts, couldn't find a Democrat anywhere. Went to Welcker's and ordered a woodcock; told him I would be back in fifteen minutes. Went out to find a Democrat—hunted a quarter of an hour and couldn't find one; went back and ate my woodcock all alone, assisted only by a bottle of champagne to keep my spirits up. Went home at eleven o'clock and found the keyhole without much difficulty. Sat down in the front room to read awhile. At twelve o'clock came a tremendous and prolonged ring at the door bell. I rushed down in a great flutter and found a small boy with a telegram. Paid him half a dollar and hurried up stairs—opened the telegram trembling and read: "Newcastle gives Seymour 209 majority." The devil it does; that won't elect him—and I don't care. I went straight to bed. My wife asked what was the news, and I told her, "Mary, the child is born and christened, and his name is Ulysses S. Grant." Then I went to sleep.

An imaginative Irishman gave utterance to this lamentation: "I returned to the halls of my fathers by night and found them in ruins. I cried out aloud, My fathers, where are they? And echo responded, Is that you, Patrick McCarthy?"

An individual made $100 at a country fair by letting people raise him by the ears, at twenty-five cents premium if raised, and ten cents fine for failure.

There is a report that Brigham Young is going to retire to private life with three millions which he has made in his profession as prophet.

Mrs. Yell lately cowhided Mr Lay for not performing a promise to marry her. As he wouldn't make her Lay, she made him Yell.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter, it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana

TELEGRAMS FROM

THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs both politically and commercially from an Oregon stand point.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.

Medical.

HIRAM SMITH'S Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and [illegible] CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS &c, as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is the effect without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, Fifteen, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS standing in [illegible] county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

K H MOORE	NATHANIEL [illegible]
A L WALLACE	G R WARD,
Mrs MONTGOMERY	JOHN M HOLT[illegible]
W D PORTER	ROB'T [illegible]

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing [illegible] diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

Prepared by SMITH & ROACH, Harrisburg, Oregon.

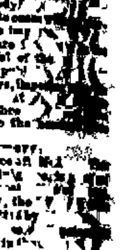
SMITH & DAVIS Portland Oregon, General Agents, to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by all Druggists.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW [illegible]

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Disease!

How many thousands of persons, both [illegible] male, are there who are suffering on account [illegible] from the effects of secret indulgence [illegible] absorbed into the system. Look at their [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken [illegible] tions disqualifying them for the [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this [illegible] sands suffer until death closes the [illegible] guardians' friends attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be[illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private disease his especial study [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is im[illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful of [illegible] tended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days [illegible] public by using the names of [illegible] European and other places. Be therefore strict in inquiry or you may fall into the [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness,

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice or depraved [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an [illegible] producing with unerring certainty the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combated [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallowness [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence [illegible] approaching strangers, a dislike to form [illegible] a disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions [illegible] furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequently [illegible] not obtained should apply immediately [illegible] or by letter and have a cure effected by his [illegible] entific mode of treating this disease, which [illegible] effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr [illegible] Hundred Dollars to any person who will [illegible] rity to him that he was cured of this [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies [illegible] sacred [illegible] responsibility resting upon them [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will [illegible] patient a written instrument, [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no [illegible]

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be Cured [illegible] by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, [illegible] toms, length of time the disease has [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country [illegible] directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent by [illegible] ter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unwary.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who with bogus sworn-to certificates, [illegible] Some of the self-styled doctors, whose [illegible] found in the daily and weekly newspapers [illegible] cisco and other places, are [illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory [illegible] will not find their Medical Institutes in it [illegible] find their former occupations in it. Look at [illegible] tory for 1862 and 1864. The only way to [illegible] you is to make enquiry—it will cost you [illegible] may save you many regrets, for, as [illegible] cians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, [illegible] safety in trusting any of them until you know what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not [illegible] exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, [illegible] letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy [illegible] call at his office of his ability to treat [illegible] proposes to cure.
